

the eyes with scarf (or similar) and draws an element from the bag. Very thoroughly, carefully turn it into his hands and try to guess what it is. Once given the answer discover the eyes and know if the answer is right or not. If it is correct the child try to find the same picture on the cardboards. When he did put on it his pawn and the element with picture turn into the bag. Then the next child play. The winner is the child who first place all his pawns on the cardboards.

Game II

This game is similar to the first one. There is only one difference, in fase of preparation you have to put the cardboard in the way that on the top there are green one color shapes

Game III

Give the cardboards to the players. Agree on which side of the board you are using and put them in the way you want. Each child must have the same number of boards. If you play in 3, everyone should have 3 boards, if in 4 everyone receive 2 boards and one board is set aside. Choose who starts the game and who will be next. First child draws one element from the bag. If the same element is on his board he put drawn element on. If on his boards there is not drawn element he put it back into the bag. Then the next child play. The winner is who first complete own boards
